

Customer Service Manager

Division: Wridgways
Department: Customer Service
Reports to: Branch Manager

We are seeking an enthusiastic and innovative candidate with an uncompromising bias for action and results. You will be joining a team focused on exceeding customer expectations through effective utilization of company resources. Essential responsibilities include; external and internal customer contact, cost control, resource allocation, monitor and assess performance for continuous improvement and an ability to adhere to quality procedure and standards.

If you believe that your experience and qualifications meet the position criteria and you are ready for an important career move with an attractive salary package, I urge you to apply.